Thirty-seven plays in ninety-seven minutes! An irreverent, fast-paced romp through the Bard's plays. Three brave actors brazenly blend the best of the brilliant Bard with the bottom of the absurdity barrel in this farcical feast of inspired lunacy. Whether you are the Bard's biggest fan or haven't read a word since high school, this laugh-out-loud production is sure to win you over! If you're lucky, they may even do it backwards.

D3

D3 Artworks in partnership with GLT received a federal grant to create and have displayed a piece of public art which will be placed in the auditorium at the Cambridge Arts Theatre.

A task force of GLT members worked with D3 to develop a theme and subject for the work. D3 is currently completing the piece which is expected to be unveiled on November 25th.

Thank you to all the members who helped with this project.

Facebook

GLT is on Facebook. Keep up to date with what's going on with GLT by joining our group page or liking us on Facebook.

Pub Nights

New Green Room manager Peter Hunton has started running Thursday Pub Nights. Pub Nights are held each Thursday evening at 9 PM with the exception of show night and rentals.

Peter would like to hear from anyone willing to help in running the bar during Pub Nights or during our shows. Please give him a call at 519 622-3714 you're interested.

There will be no Pub Night on October 27, 2011 due to a rental that evening.

Keys & Pass Codes

We have re-keyed the stage door and are wiping all pass codes from the alarm panel at the beginning of September. You will need to contract Warren Shaw to get a new key or code.

Unfortunately there are a limited number of keys available, so only those who need regular access to the building will be issued keys.
