The Phoenix—September 2007

MINIFEST 2007

W.O.D.L.'s annual Minifest 2007.
Hosted by Thistle Theatre in Embro.
July 27th.-29th.

The aim of the Minifest Workshop Weekend is to give groups a chance to enter a festival without the problems of transporting a set. Also, to let new directors, actors and technicians try their hands at something on a smaller scale than the major competitive festival.

This year's production was "Standoff at the Lucky Fork" by playwright David Victor, directed by Adam Jones, produced by Marion Smith and stage managed by Dave MacMillan. The cast included Marion Smith, Sherrie Miller, Jen Prole, Patsy McCleery, Jessica Eby and Adam Jones.

The preview on the evening of July 26th was well attended by many enthusiastic family members and friends. They were witness to one of six multiple endings. The "X-Files" inspired ending was a complete surprise and a unique twist to what was thought to be an ordinary whodunit. Afterwards, there was an opportunity to mingle with cast and crew and avail ourselves of an assortment of munchies including pecan pie (Adam's favourite!).

Minifest was held in Embro this year at the Thistle Theatre, July 27 - 29th. It was complete with a red carpet welcome including paparazzi, name tags, good food, and dancing. What more could you ask for? Oh, there was also the six performances from the member groups. During the awards banquet, the "minis" were presented.

GLT's awards included The Firearm Safety Award presented to Jen Prole; The Fishing for Diamonds Award presented to Sherrie Miller and The Snow Award presented to Adam Jones. Adam would like to thank everyone who made Minifest an amazing success. We look forward to Adam's next directing efforts assisting Patsy McCleery on Dear Santa.

From the Chair

What an exciting season of theatre we have before us! We'll start with an Open House on Saturday, September 1 from 1 – 3 pm. We will show ourselves off to prospective new members. Representatives from the kids and youth will be there with programme information. Volunteers from our membership are needed to take people on tours and answer questions. If you can help out call me.

Following the Open House, we'll have our Volunteer Appreciation BBQ starting at 4 pm. If you volunteered in any capacity last year, want to volunteer this year or would like to thank our volunteers, please come for a burger or hot dog. The bar will be selling the regular drinks. Thanks go to Pat Harmer and Kay Mattear for arranging the food and John Resendes will man the grill. It should be a good party.

The Management Committee is planning a full year. Plans are in the works for Acting 101 – a series of workshops that will be open to all members for a small fee. Both novice and experienced actors will be able to learn and share. We'd like to start after Thanksgiving. Robin Bennett has offered to run these sessions. There will be more information in the next Phoenix.

We are establishing a committee to plan for our 75th anniversary in the 2008/9 season. We want to have a few clean-up and refurbish days.

PUB NIGHTS start on Thursday, September 6 following the General Meeting.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED:

We still have two places vacant on the Management Committee. Patsy McCleery has agreed fill in the Vice-Chair Production role but that is not the best solution as she needs to focus on directing Dear Santa. If someone is willing to step in there will be lots of training and help available.

The Treasurer position is also open.

Does anyone want to assist us with a resurrection of the One-Act Director Workshop?

We need a volunteer to coordinate our sponsorship and fundraising opportunities. This is not a time-heavy commitment but a necessary function to keep our theatre afloat.

This theatre group is a creative force in the Cambridge community. There are so many opportunities for us. Get involved and share your ideas. The next general meeting will be on Thursday, September 6 at 7:30 pm.

Cheers
jan durban

If you have any questions, please contact Patsy McCleery at pmc5@rogers.com

AUDITION NOTICE

As Bees in Honey Drown by David Carter Beane
Directed by Dave MacMillan

Satire set in present day New York City involving a young writer and a woman he meets who asks him to write a movie of her life. As he proceeds with the assignment, he meets many of the other people who have also encountered the same woman and been affected by her eccentricities. This play offers a number of opportunities for actors to display their range in both dramatic and comedic ways.

Cast: 3 Males, aged 20 - 40
3 Females, aged 20 - 40
Note: Two of the males and two of the females will each play multiple roles.

Times: November 4th, 7-10pm
November 5th, 7-10pm
November 7th, 7-10pm (Callbacks)
Upstairs Rehearsal Hall

Requirements: Read from the script and perform an audition piece if the actor chooses.

Showtime's: Feb. 14 - 23
(This is GLT's W.O.D.L. entry for the 2007/8 season).

feMAELSTROM is a story with four parts which are all a story within themselves. Each part is very different, although they all share common themes. feMAELSTROM brings its audience face-to-face with some of the world's most famous (or infamous) females. Past, present, myth and memory meld together in this production. This is the kind of show that will be enjoyed by anyone interested in new, exciting theatre which is highly engaging, with some edge. We ask everyone to please keep in mind that portions of feMAELSTROM contain mature content and is not recommended for children under the age of 12.
